ST. LUKE

Even though the day was gray a sizeable crowd attended regular preaching and communion services at the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday, January 6 at 11:00. REv. McLaughlin was in charge and gave an inspiring message and the communion was so very sacred and touching. The Senior Choir gave the music that was soul stirring and uplifting. The offering was good and we had many visitors. Among those present were Mrs. Eva Hamlette from Pennsylvania, she is Mrs. Esther Callaham's sister.

All home for the Christmas holidays have returned to their destiny.

The Sunrise Service at the St. Luke Church for December 25th was well attended by members from Evergreen, Greensprings and other churches. Rev. J. Cabbel was the speaker.

Mrs. Inez Patrrick is in because of illness from a cold. We hope for her a speedy recovery. Rev. Mclaughlin was to visit in the home today, Sunday the 6th.

Mrs. Francis Cheatham is on the sick list at this writing.

The Cornerstone Baptist Sunday School Union met at the Beautiful Zion Church School December 30, 1973. A wonderful program was carried out. Rev. T. M. Venerable, President was in charge the schools were well represented and most schools sent in funds for scholarships which made the finance taken in for the day good. All officers will serve for the year 74 only different ones.

Rev. Moore, pastor of the church, gave an inspiring message. Lunch was served the ladies of the church.

...v. C. A. Collins of Beulah ...st Church, and Rev. J. J. ...nak, Interim Pastor of ...ey, officiated at the double ...remony.

...e bride was escorted and ...n in marriage by her ...r. She wore a traditional ...ed gown of white satin ...shioned with a victorian ...ine and Bishop sleeves. ...s of Nottingham lace ...ned the fitted bodice and ...ed the semi-natural ...line. The softly gathered ...which was bordered with a deep lace flounce flowed into a full circular train. The chapel length veil of imported illusion was edged with scalloped lace.

Miss Claudia Gordon of Appomattox was her cousins' maid of honor. Attendents were Miss Kimberly Riffe of Lynchburg, sister of the bridegroom, Miss Pettis Bowling, Miss Mary Louise Garrett, and Miss Josie Megginson, all of Appomattox. The attendants all wore floor length dress of flowered chiffon and satin. They each carried a white candle surounded with wreaths of mistletoe.

Mr. H. L. Riffe of Lynchburg was his son's best man and ushers were Ross Fairweather, Jim Masseth and Arnold Pearson, all of Lynchburg, and Lannis Selz of Appomattox.

The bride's mother wore a pink floor length dress which had a beaded trimmed neckline and wore a lavender orchid corsage. The groom's mother wore a blue floor length dress and wore a pale blue orchid corsage.

Pianist was Mr. Jeffrey Riffe, brother of the groom, and soloist was Mrs. Betty Rhodenizer.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents were hosts for a reception at the Falling River Country Club Club House.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is attending Longwood College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Brookville High School and is employed by Oakwood Mobile Homes, Bedford, Virginia.

After a wedding trip, the couple will live in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg Fine Arts Center To Present Play

On January 18th the Theater Division of the Lynchburg Fine Arts Center will begin performances of "Butterflies are Free," the comedy critics hailed as a "sure-fire crowd pleaser." It will star Fred Heptinstall, Jr., Alice Gifford, Mary Sue Carroll, and Jim Gresham as the principals in Leonard Gershe's internationally acclaimed hit, to be directed by Philip Sommer.

The play is set in a cold water flat in New York's East Village. The scenery calls for all the psychedelic paraphernalia of the Village pad where dwells Don Baker, a recent arrival from the affluent suburbs.

Miss Carroll portrays Jill Tanner, something of a free spirit and something of a kook, who has moved in next door. They meet, talk and the situation looks like it will develop predictably into romance. It does, with one large difference. Don is blind and has been from birth.

At this point Don's over-protective mother enters and the situation is heightened into a battle of wit and wits among the three.

"Butterflies are Free" will play at the Lynchburg Fine Arts Center on the evenings of January 18, 19, 25 and 26 at 8:30 P.M. There will be one afternoon performance at 3:00 P.M. on January 20. Tickets may be reserves by calling the Fine Arts Center Box Office at Lynchburg 846-8451.
